MANY NONPROFITS FORCED TO RESCHEDULE OR CANCEL SPRING EVENTS

Lunch Break is one of many nonprofit organizations that has been forced to cancel spring events due to Coronavirus. While most organizations are rescheduling their events for future dates, many not until the fall, the Taste of Summer Culinary Extravaganza slated for May 12 has been canceled and will not be rescheduled, mainly because the 30-plus restaurants and eateries that participate in this event each year are closed until further notice. Lunch Break will be going ahead with its fall gala to be held on Friday, Oct. 16. Lunch Break executive director Gwendolyn Love; development manager Jill Govel-Gwydir; director of administration Millie Jeter and board president John Klein are pictured at the Channel Club in Monmouth Beach during the 2019 Taste of Summer event.

Channel Club and Beach Tavern executive chef Ken Mansfield served Culinary Extravaganza guests.

The Triumph Brewing Company of Red Bank participated in last year's event.
